Sonora

Nature in its wild state inspires the moskiddos Spring/Summer 2025 season.

The aquamarine tones contrast with the wild nature of the forest and desert terrain. The collection is inspired by the missionary architecture of the Sonoran Desert, which tones we have assimilated.

The shapes and volumes of the garments are integrated with the orography of nature and its elements of sand, forest, wind and sun.

This collection is driven by the need to return to our origins, where materials, textures and touch reveal an important part of our essence. Freshness, joy, a taste for quality and comfort is what we want the Sonora collection to convey.
